Organizational structure

The organizational structure of the Doctoral School defines the following roles:

a) Head of the Doctoral School
b) Secretary of the Doctoral School
c) Core members
d) The Doctoral Council of Multidisciplinary Engineering Sciences (TDT)
e) The Operative Committee (OB)
   i. Chair of the Scientific Board (TT) of the OB, ii. Members of the TT of the OB, iii. Secretary of the TT of the OB, iv. Chair of the Specialization Board (SZT) of the OB,
   v. Members of the SZT of the OB, vi. Secretary of the SZT of the OB,
f) PhD supervisors
g) Teaching staff.

The operation of the Doctoral School requires at least 7 core members, most of whom are required to be university professors as per the relevant regulations. Each of the three scientific fields associated with the Doctoral School shall be represented by at least 3 core members (some core members may represent more than one field).